Williamson Chamber of Commerce Announces Reboot with Renewed Leadership and Mission

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Williamson, NY (May 23, 2024) – The Williamson Chamber of Commerce is thrilled to announce its official reboot with a dedicated team of local leaders at the helm and a revitalized mission focused on fostering economic prosperity and a vibrant community spirit!

The Chamber welcomes a new Executive Board led by President Nicole Wylie, owner of Wylie Business Solutions. Joining her are Vice President Andrew Mohanlall, Member at Large; Secretary Jim Dowling, Reliant Credit Union; and Treasurer Randy Peck, owner of Storemore Self Storage.

The Board of Directors is further strengthened by the expertise of Charlie Leunig, Member at Large; Melissa Lucieer, Manager of LNB Bank; Tammy Adamski, owner of Tammy's Tree of Life; and Mary Anagnostopoulos, owner of The Original Candy Kitchen.

A Renewed Mission for Williamson's Future

The Williamson Chamber of Commerce is dedicated to:

- Promoting economic progress: We will champion initiatives that drive business growth, attract new investment, and create a thriving local economy.
- Enhancing quality of life: We will support programs and events that contribute to a vibrant and welcoming community atmosphere.
- Fostering a climate for success: We will advocate for policies that encourage commerce, industry, and agriculture to flourish.

Achieving Our Goals Together

The Chamber will work towards its mission by:

- Promoting good business practices: We will provide resources and workshops to empower local businesses.
- Encouraging community involvement: We will foster collaboration and build bridges between businesses, other organizations, and residents.
- Supporting a diverse and thriving community: We will advocate for initiatives that create educational, cultural, and entrepreneurial opportunities for all.
